GIBSON DUNN

Gibson Dunn Further Strengthens Market-Leading Business Restructuring and Reorganization and Special Situations Practices With Return of Partner Andrew Cheng in Los Angeles

Firm News | May 27, 2025

Gibson Dunn is pleased to announce that Andrew W. Cheng has rejoined the firm's Los Angeles office as a partner in the Business Restructuring and Reorganization Practice Group and the Liability Management and Special Situations Practice Group.

"We are excited to welcome Andrew back to our team," said Scott J. Greenberg, Global Chair of Gibson Dunn's Business Restructuring and Reorganization Practice Group. "With restructurings and distressed financings on the rise, our market-leading platform is experiencing incredible client demand globally. Andrew is a versatile finance lawyer with extensive experience leading financing transactions in the rescue and distressed space. He will be instrumental in deepening our bench and helping clients navigate the increasingly dynamic credit environment."

"I'm thrilled to come home to Gibson Dunn," said Andrew. "I've been impressed watching the Gibson Dunn team transform the restructuring practice into a global powerhouse. I look forward to working alongside this incredible, collaborative team as it continues to lead clients through complex restructurings and provide innovative, market-moving financing solutions."

Steven Domanowski, Chair of the firm's Liability Management and Special Situations Practice Group, added, "Andrew will serve as an invaluable resource for our clients in a highly active distressed finance environment. He intimately understands the needs our clients are facing and how to craft resolutions to complex problems."

The firm's Business Restructuring and Reorganization Practice Group has expanded its global offering over the past few years, with Andrew being the most recent addition to the team. In March, senior restructuring partners Chris Howard and Presley Warner joined in London. The group's additions also include partners Lisa Stevens (London), AnnElyse Scarlett Gains (Washington, D.C.), Caith Kushner (New York), and Ryan Kim (New York), as well as the promotions of Stephen D. Silverman (New York) and Melissa L. Barshop (Century City) to partner.

The Gibson Dunn Business Restructuring and Reorganization Practice Group advises on the largest and most complex restructurings globally, dominating the market in the U.S. and Europe. It was named Lead Counsel in Debtwire's Restructuring Advisory Mandates Report for North America in both 2023 and 2024. Within the practice, the Liability Management and Special Situations team has emerged as a pioneer in liability management focused on devising and executing tailored solutions for ad hoc groups of

Related People

Andrew Cheng

© 2026 Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP. All rights reserved. For contact and other information, please visit us at www.gibsondunn.com. | www.gibsondunn.com debt holders and other debt investors.

About Andrew Cheng

Andrew’s practice focuses on distressed-related financings, including rescue and DIP financings, representing lenders in liability management transactions, restructuring of syndicated secured credit facilities, and sponsor-side acquisition financings.

Prior to rejoining Gibson Dunn, Andrew served as a partner at another international law firm. Previously, he was a partner at Gibson Dunn. He earned his law degree from Harvard Law School in 2000.

Related Capabilities

Business Restructuring and Reorganization

Liability Management and Special Situations

© 2026 Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP. All rights reserved. For contact and other information, please visit us at www.gibsondunn.com. | www.gibsondunn.com