GIBSON DUNN

Gibson Dunn Further Strengthens Transactional Capabilities in New York With Capital Markets Partner Michael Saliba

Firm News | March 17, 2025

Gibson Dunn is pleased to announce that Michael Saliba has joined the firm's New York office as a partner in the Capital Markets Practice Group. Michael advises clients on a range of complex capital markets transactions, including registered and private equity financings such as high-yield debt, preferred stock, and other private credit transactions, and special situations and restructuring transactions.

"Michael's broad-based finance practice perfectly aligns with the continued growth in our M&A, private equity, and restructuring practices, and we are thrilled to welcome him to Gibson Dunn," said Andrew L. Fabens, Co-Partner in Charge of the New York office and Co-Chair of the firm's Capital Markets Practice Group. "We are in a new world of capital markets. As U.S. markets rise and regulatory hurdles fall, deepening our premier transactional platform with an experienced, technically talented, and versatile capital markets lawyer like Michael will greatly benefit clients seeking to navigate today's financing environment."

"I'm delighted to begin the next chapter of my career alongside this extremely talented, collaborative, and elite Gibson Dunn team," said Michael. "Gibson Dunn's strength across key transactional areas, including capital markets, private credit, debt finance, and project finance offers the ideal platform to accelerate my practice. With the markets in growth mode, complexity in financing deal transactions is only expected to increase, making this an exciting time to be a capital markets lawyer."

The firm's transactional practices in New York have experienced significant synergistic growth with the addition of more than a dozen lateral partners over the past few years. Recent arrivals include private credit partner Ryan Kim, M&A partner George Sampas, private equity partner Brian Scrivani, and special situations partner Caith Kushner.

Gibson Dunn's preeminent capital markets team provides a deep understanding of all complex capital markets deals for clients ranging from multinational corporations to startups, and from investment banks to private funds, across various industries and jurisdictions. This includes IPOs and other equity transactions, investment grade, high-yield, and other debt, converts, preferred stock, PIPEs, and liability management transactions.

About Michael Saliba

Michael has developed a wide-ranging practice advising issuers, underwriters, sponsors, and investors on a range of complex domestic and cross-border capital markets and hybrid finance transactions. He also regularly counsels clients on a variety of corporate and securities law matters, as well as high-yield debt covenant and debt structuring

Related People

Michael D. Saliba

© 2026 Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP. All rights reserved. For contact and other information, please visit us at www.gibsondunn.com. | www.gibsondunn.com analyses.

Prior to joining Gibson Dunn, Michael served as a partner at another leading international law firm. He earned his law degree from Georgetown University Law Center in 2007.

Related Capabilities

Capital Markets

© 2026 Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP. All rights reserved. For contact and other information, please visit us at www.gibsondunn.com. | www.gibsondunn.com