GIBSON DUNN

Gibson Dunn Guides HPE to Favorable DOJ Settlement in Challenge to HPE-Juniper Merger

Firm News | July 3, 2025

Gibson Dunn successfully represented Hewlett Packard Enterprise (HPE) in securing a settlement with the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) that cleared the way for HPE's $14 billion acquisition of Juniper Networks. HPE announced its agreement to acquire Juniper in January 2024, the DOJ filed suit to block the acquisition in January 2025, and the settlement was reached on June 27, less than two weeks before the scheduled start of trial. Our team included partners Samuel Liversidge, Stephen Weissman, Michael Perry, Kristen Limarzi, Jamie France, and Daniel Nowicki and associates John Matthew Butler, Courtney Spears, Thomas Tyson, Austin Donohue, Ming Lee Newcomb, and Tate Rosenblatt.

Related People

Samuel Liversidge

Stephen Weissman

Michael J. Perry

Kristen C. Limarzi

Jamie E. France

Daniel Nowicki

John Matthew Butler

Courtney L. Spears

Thomas Tyson

Austin M. Donohue

Ming Lee Newcomb

Tate Rosenblatt

Related Capabilities

Antitrust and Competition

© 2026 Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP. All rights reserved. For contact and other information, please visit us at www.gibsondunn.com. | www.gibsondunn.com