

Gibson Dunn Honored with Amica Center's Defender of Due Process Award

Pro Bono | July 1, 2026

Gibson Dunn has been honored by the Amica Center for Immigrant Rights with its Defender of Due Process Award, recognizing the Firm's commitment to protecting the rights of immigrants through pro bono litigation. The Amica Center highlighted Gibson Dunn's work challenging the termination of legal services for immigrants in ICE detention and protecting access to legal representation for unaccompanied immigrant children.

Read more about this recognition.