GIBSON DUNN

Gibson Dunn Lawyers Appointed to ABA Antitrust Section Leadership Roles

Firm News | August 21, 2025

American Bar Association Antitrust Section

Thirteen Gibson Dunn lawyers have been appointed to leadership roles in the American Bar Association Antitrust Section. We applaud our lawyers' commitment to helping shape the future of antitrust law. Our ABA Antitrust Section lawyers include partners Amy Feagles (Vice Chair, Antitrust Consumer Protection Law Daily Digest), Svetlana Gans (Publications Officer), Scott Hammond (Vice Chair – DAAG, International Cartel Task Force), Kristen Limarzi (Editor, Antitrust Law Developments – Annual Review), Michael Perry (Senior Editor, Antitrust Law Journal), Jeremy Robison (Vice Chair, International Cartel Workshop), Jay Srinivasan (Editor, Antitrust Law Developments, Tenth Edition), and Eric Stock (Co-Chair, Global Private Litigation Committee); of counsel Stephanie Pearl (Vice Chair, Diverse Perspectives & Engagement Committee); and associates Sarah Akhtar (Vice Chair, Cartel and Criminal Practice Committee), Caroline Black (Co-Chair, Leadership Development Committee), Steve Pet (Vice Chair, Mergers and Acquisitions Committee), and Ben Sherwood (Young Lawyer Representative, Unilateral Conduct Committee).

Related People

Amy Feagles

Svetlana S. Gans

Scott Hammond

Kristen C. Limarzi

Michael J. Perry

Jeremy Robison

Jay P. Srinivasan

Eric J. Stock

Stevie E. Pearl

Sarah Akhtar

Caroline M.L. Black

Steve Pet

Ben A. Sherwood

Related Capabilities

Antitrust and Competition

© 2026 Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP. All rights reserved. For contact and other information, please visit us at www.gibsondunn.com. | www.gibsondunn.com