Gibson Dunn topped Bloomberg Law's Big Law M&A Leaderboard, advising on $501.7 billion in deals in the first half of 2026.

"Our performance reflects the confidence clients placed in us on their most significant transactions," said Robert Little, global co-chair of the firm's M&A Practice Group. "The first half showed buyers with conviction moving decisively as strategic imperatives outweighed the caution that had held deals back."
