

Gibson Dunn Named 2021 Texas Powerhouse by Law360

Accolades | August 2, 2021

Law360

Law360 named Gibson Dunn a 2021 Texas Powerhouse, one of five law firms that “bested the competition,” “scoring courtroom victories in bet-the-company litigation and leading deals that reshaped the market.” Law360 noted that the firm demonstrated “its penchant for innovation as it convinced a Texas appellate court to overturn a record-setting $740 million state trade secrets jury verdict and advised on a first-of-its-kind sustainability-backed bond offering.” The profile was published on August 2, 2021.

Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher’s Dallas and Houston offices offer a local presence and the resources of an international law firm to represent clients on their most important and sensitive matters, including complex commercial litigation, M&A, appellate, antitrust, intellectual property, data privacy, executive compensation, capital markets, labor and employment, and tax. The Houston office opened in early 2017 and strengthened our long-term Texas presence, which began in the early 1980s in Dallas. With a rich diversity in practice groups and business experience, Gibson Dunn is committed to the Texas business community. The Dallas office has a wide range of clients, including private equity firms, closely held private companies, and public companies, including many large Fortune 500 companies located in the Dallas-Fort Worth area and beyond. The Houston office contributes to the firm’s standing as a legal powerhouse in the energy, corporate and litigation arenas, representing the world’s preeminent corporations.
