GIBSON DUNN

Gibson Dunn Named 2023 Crisis Management and Government Oversight Winner

Accolades | October 27, 2023

The National Law Journal

At its annual awards ceremony, The National Law Journal named Gibson Dunn the 2023 Crisis Management and Government Oversight winner, which "recognizes firms that have guided clients through government proceedings in Washington, D.C." Additionally, Washington, D.C. partner Roscoe Jones Jr. was named among the finalists in the Government Relations & Lobbying category, which "recognizes attorneys who have achieved outstanding results in full-service lobbying and public policy initiatives." The award was presented on October 26, 2023. Gibson Dunn's Crisis Management Practice Group is renowned for taking immediate action to manage any situation, executing a strategic communication plan and guiding clients through difficult events. The group's experience extends to all manner of issues that can arise in a corporate crisis situation, including: criminal law and complex civil litigation; securities and corporate governance; antitrust; environmental regulation; banking, currency and accounting; international trade; employment disputes; energy; U.S. homeland security, immigration and border issues; and U.S. election law and ballot measures.

Related Capabilities

Crisis Management

Public Policy

© 2026 Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP. All rights reserved. For contact and other information, please visit us at www.gibsondunn.com. | www.gibsondunn.com