Firm News | July 9, 2026

Gibson Dunn today announced its partnership with LA28 and Team USA in connection with the LA28 Olympic and Paralympic Games.

The firm will provide legal services to support LA28 as it prepares to host the Los Angeles 2028 Olympic and Paralympic Games, marking the return of the summer edition of the Olympic Games to the United States for the first time in more than three decades.

Founded in Los Angeles more than 135 years ago, Gibson Dunn has long played a leading role in the city's civic, business, and cultural life. The partnership reflects the firm's enduring commitment to Los Angeles and its support for initiatives that strengthen the region and elevate its global profile.

"We are proud to partner with LA28 and Team USA in support of the 2028 Olympic and Paralympic Games," said Barbara Becker, Chair and Managing Partner of Gibson Dunn. "Serving Los Angeles and its communities has been part of Gibson Dunn since our founding here, and this is a special moment to see that commitment extend to a Games that will welcome the world—and benefit the city and the people who call it home."

The partnership also builds on Gibson Dunn's longstanding experience advising clients across the sports industry. The firm's multidisciplinary Sports Industry Group represents teams, venues, athletic associations, sponsors, broadcasters, financial institutions, municipalities, and other stakeholders on complex transactional, regulatory, governance, litigation, intellectual property, labor and employment, and commercial matters.

"Preparing for the LA28 Olympic and Paralympic Games requires sophisticated advice across a wide range of legal disciplines, and Gibson Dunn is uniquely positioned to bring together lawyers from across the firm to help LA28 meet that challenge," said Candice Choh and Kahn Scolnick, Co-Partners in Charge of Gibson Dunn's Los Angeles and Century City offices. "We look forward to drawing on the full depth of our practice to help deliver a Games that Los Angeles will be proud to host."

"We are pleased to welcome Gibson Dunn as an Official Provider of the LA28 Games," said Elisabeth Frienberg, Chief Legal Officer of LA28. "The firm's deep Los Angeles roots, industry reach, and multidisciplinary capabilities make it uniquely qualified to support the complex legal needs of an event of this scale."

The partnership also reflects Gibson Dunn's broader commitment to public service. Through its pro bono practice and support for civic initiatives, the firm has helped advance causes across Southern California, and it is proud to back a Games expected to deliver a lasting economic and civic legacy for the region.
