GIBSON DUNN

Gibson Dunn Named Texas Regional Litigation Department of the Year by The American Lawyer

Accolades | November 16, 2023

The American Lawyer

The American Lawyer has named Gibson Dunn as the Texas Regional Litigation Department of the Year winner, which recognizes "the best litigation department in [the] jurisdiction." The award was presented on November 15, 2023. Gibson Dunn possesses one of the most sophisticated and effective litigation practices in Texas. Our trial lawyers handle a broad spectrum of contested cases both in-state and across the United States, including antitrust, intellectual property, class actions, securities, and information technology and data privacy. Highly sophisticated clients consistently turn to us to prosecute and defend their high-profile and high-stakes litigation matters. In addition, our Texas-based appellate lawyers have briefed, argued and won high-profile, high-stakes constitutional controversies and complex business disputes in the U.S. Supreme Court, the Texas Supreme Court, and federal and state courts of appeals nationwide.

Related Capabilities

Litigation

© 2026 Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP. All rights reserved. For contact and other information, please visit us at www.gibsondunn.com. | www.gibsondunn.com