Consistent with the firm's history of double-digit revenue growth since the beginning of Chair and Managing Partner Barbara Becker's tenure in 2021, Gibson Dunn posted a 15.7% increase in gross revenue in 2024, to $3.6 billion, and a 28.4% increase in profits per equity partner, to $7.2 million.

Barbara attributed the firm's success to its long-term strategy of developing marquee practice and industry groups. "Our strategy has been to focus on excellence and collaboration," she said, "building destination practices and industry expertise across our platform, and it works because we are truly collaborative."
