

Gibson Dunn Ranked Among Leading Fund Formation Law Firms

Accolades | April 3, 2024

Private Equity Real Estate

PERE ranked Gibson Dunn among the top 5 fund formation law firms by aggregate value of funds advised and by the number of funds advised. The ranking was published in the April 2024 issue. The firm's Investment Funds Practice Group specializes in the organization of private investment funds and the representation of fund management companies. Typically representing the general partner or manager, we also represent other key participants in private funds, including strategic, seed and other investors, funds of funds, gatekeepers and advisers, placement agents and co-investors. The Investment Funds group's deep experience and broad market knowledge cover virtually all types of private investment funds and managed accounts across a wide range of formats and jurisdictions. Our clients include newly established firms, independent and joint venture boutiques, multistrategy investment management firms, and divisions of insurance companies, investment banks and other financial institutions.

Related Capabilities

Investment Funds