

Gibson Dunn Ranked in Legal 500 Latin America 2026

Accolades | October 23, 2025

Legal 500

Gibson Dunn has been recognized in the 2026 edition of The Legal 500 Latin America, earning 25 total rankings — six practice rankings and 19 individual rankings. The firm was lauded for its leading work in the region in Banking and Finance, Capital Markets, Compliance and Investigations, Corporate and M&A, International Arbitration, and Projects and Energy. The guide was published on October 23, 2025.

The publication ranked Michael Farhang and Joe Warin as Leading Partners in the Compliance and Investigations category and Rahim Moloo as a Leading Partner in International Arbitration. In addition, of counsel Bryan Parr and Pedro Soto were named Leading Associates in Compliance and Investigations.

Gibson Dunn's Latin America practice provides global legal services to our clients and shows our commitment to this dynamic region. The group draws on the legal, linguistic, and cultural experience of its members to advise a broad base of transnational clients.

Related Capabilities

Capital Markets

Energy and Infrastructure

Finance

International Arbitration

Mergers and Acquisitions

White Collar Defense and Investigations

Related People

Michael Farhang

F. Joseph Warin

Rahim Moloo

Bryan Parr

Pedro G. Soto