Gibson Dunn Represented Long Lake Management in $2.75 Billion Financing of Acquisition of American Express Global Business Travel

Firm News | October 1, 2026

Gibson Dunn represented Long Lake Management in connection with the $2.75 billion financing for its acquisition of American Express Global Business Travel. The financing transaction included a $1.5 billion term loan facility, $250 million revolving facility, and $1 billion senior secured notes. JPMorgan Chase Bank served as lead arranger for the credit facilities and will serve as administrative agent for the credit facilities.

The Gibson Dunn finance team included partners Doug Horowitz and Dean Masuda and associates Eric Olson, Julia Sweitzer, Melody Karmana, and Nathan Halaney. Partner Atma Kabad, of counsel Marie Kwon, and associates Allan Jeanjaquet and Lachlan McLeod advised on capital markets aspects.
