

Gibson Dunn Represented R.R. Donnelly on the 12th Amendment to Its Credit Agreement with Bank of America

Firm News | July 23, 2025

Gibson Dunn represented R.R. Donnelly in connection with the 12th amendment to its existing credit agreement with Bank of America, N.A. The amendment extended the maturity of the credit facility by four years, increased the aggregate revolving commitments from $750 million to $800 million, and replaced Wells Fargo Bank as the administrative agent with Bank of America. Our corporate team was led by partner Michael Saliba and included associates Paul Rafla, Melody Karmana, and Mackenzie Alpert. Partner Jennifer Sabin and associate Eva Gao advised on tax.
