The AmLaw Litigation Daily

A Gibson Dunn team has been recognized in Litigation Daily's Litigator of the Week Runners-Up and Shout-Outs for its appellate patent win on behalf of Sun Pharma.

A 2024 injunction had barred our client from launching an alopecia drug due to an alleged patent infringement. At a hearing in April 2025, that injunction was vacated by the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit less than one hour after oral arguments were made. In a recently issued precedential opinion, the Court held that the patent-owner plaintiff would not be irreparably harmed because its early-stage drug couldn't be launched until years after the patent expires in late 2026.

Our winning team included partners Josh Krevitt, Paul Torchia, Charlotte Jacobsen, Christine Ranney, of counsel Anne Brody and associates Allen Kathir, Monica Grover and Emily Whitcher.
