Accolades | August 12, 2026

The American Lawyer

Jumping six places from last year, Gibson Dunn is ranked fifth in the 2026 Am Law A-List (subscription required), which ranks “law firms that are operating on all cylinders, showing high performance not just on financial metrics, but across talent, diversity and social responsibility as well. The rankings measure success in revenue per lawyer, pro bono, diversity, female equity partner percentage and midlevel associate satisfaction. Revenue per lawyer and pro bono are double weighted.”
