Gibson Dunn was honored at the recent Global Competition Review Awards in Washington, D.C., with its win for Litigation of the Year – Cartel Defence. Our team was recognized, along with counsel for several of our co-defendants, for our role in obtaining the complete dismissal at the Ninth Circuit of a high-profile antitrust class action against our client UBS and other major international banks (McCarthy v. Intercontinental Exchange Inc. et al., commonly referred to as the ICE LIBOR interest rate benchmark class action). Our winning team included partners Jefferson Bell and Eric Stock and associates Katie Salvaggio and Ina Kosova.
