

Hillary Holmes Moderates “The Energy Moonshot: Space, Infrastructure, and Strategic Advantage” Discussion at Kay Bailey Hutchison Energy Center Symposium

Firm News | September 14, 2026

Partner Hillary Holmes moderated the discussion “The Energy Moonshot: Space, Infrastructure, and Strategic Advantage” at the 2026 Kay Bailey Hutchison Energy Center Symposium, featuring former Senator and NASA Administrator Bill Nelson and Halliburton Labs Managing Director Andres Cabada. The discussion explored how advanced technology, bipartisan efforts, and bold new thinking will develop space-based energy sources, infrastructure and data processing, and the next frontier of global innovation.
