

Hillary Holmes Quoted by International Financing Review About Smaller Business IPOs

In the Media | May 22, 2026

International Financing Review

Partner Hillary Holmes was quoted by International Financing Review (subscription required) in its article “Small U.S. IPOs Remain in the Shadows.” The article discussed a push to reduce “regulatory friction” for smaller companies looking to go public.

“The SEC is focused on making a difference with respect to promoting capital formation and a push to change policy to reboot IPOs and increase the number of public companies,” Hillary said.

Related People

Hillary H. Holmes

Related Capabilities

Securities Regulation and Corporate Governance