Hillary Holmes Quoted in Reuters on SEC Approval of Texas Stock Exchange

In the Media | September 30, 2025

Partner Hillary Holmes, co-chair of the firm's Capital Markets practice group, was featured in a recent Reuters article covering the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission's approval of the Texas Stock Exchange (TXSE). Holmes commented on the significance of the approval, stating:

"It's exciting to see a well-capitalized national securities exchange get approved by the SEC for the first time in decades." She also offered a measured perspective on the road ahead for TXSE, noting that while the approval is a major milestone, building a robust roster of listed companies will take time. Holmes's insights underscore her deep expertise in capital markets and her role advising clients on public offerings and exchange listings.
