Arabian Gulf Business Insight

Partner Ibrahim Soumrany spoke to Arabian Gulf Business Insight about promising signs for Saudi Arabia's IPO markets, as companies begin to list again following a period of geopolitical uncertainty.

Ibrahim told the publication that while some companies have chosen to delay their IPO plans by a few weeks, there is still momentum from those intending to list. "Everyone's acknowledging that it's not a very easy market, but I don't think that anyone is taking the view that people are about to pull their IPOs. It also depends on how much you price your IPO; it's a kind of balancing act."
