

Jason Cabral Discusses GENIUS Act with Axios Crypto Newsletter

In the Media | August 6, 2025

Axios Crypto Newsletter

Partner Jason Cabral was interviewed by the Axios Crypto Newsletter about the GENIUS Act, where he discussed how the statute lays the groundwork for regulatory development: "The statute creates the framework, and then the rules, the regulations that are implemented under that statute, help drive that framework and create the outer bounds." He also noted that public comment periods for rulemakings often surface helpful insights or unintended consequences for policymakers, helping shape more responsive and effective regulation.
