Partner Jordan Estes has authored “The Noise of High-Profile Cases” for the ABA Litigation Journal [PDF]. She discusses the unique challenges of managing media coverage in various stages of high-profile cases from before filing to after the verdict.

“In high-profile cases, the courtroom isn’t the only battleground: The court of public opinion can be just as important,” Jordan writes. “For attorneys handling headline-making matters, direct (or indirect) media engagement is a critical part of the case. Navigating the media in these matters requires a careful balance between effective advocacy and ethical boundaries.”
