The National Black Lawyers

Karin Portlock has been named to The National Black Lawyers Top 100 2024, a list of “the most successful and influential lawyers with reputations for providing excellent legal representation in their respective practice areas.” The National Black Lawyers is “an invitation-only professional development and networking association comprised of the top African American attorneys from across the country.” The selection was announced in July 2024. Karin Portlock has a broad-based government enforcement and investigations practice, ranging from government and internal corporate investigations to criminal defense and regulatory enforcement litigation through trial. She regularly represents individuals and companies under criminal investigation and indictment by the U.S. Department of Justice as well as in civil government probes by federal regulators and state Attorneys General.
