Partner Keith Enright recently took part in a Newsweek webinar on AI governance, where he emphasized the need for effective risk management, regulatory compliance, and a transparent approach as AI adoption accelerates. Keith commented on the rapidly evolving pace of AI evolution: "The perceived scale of change and impact is even greater than it ever was before, and there is this unique feature that, now, winning is existential." Keith is Co-Chair of the firm's Tech and Innovation Industry Group and Artificial Intelligence Practice Group.
