Bloomberg Law

Partner Krista Hanvey has been named to Bloomberg Law's "They've Got Next: The 40 Under 40" list, which recognizes lawyers who "excel and innovate in their work for clients, in their leadership in their organizations, and in their service to their communities."

In her interview with the publication, Krista reflected on recent wins, career-defining lessons, and her approach to building strong client relationships. She shared that building long-term partnerships comes from deeply understanding a client's business strategy and challenges and becoming part of their team. "While technical expertise is important, being able to frame an issue for different audiences to explain legal considerations in a digestible format and to come up with creative solutions that can practically be implemented — within budget and time constraints — can make you instrumental for your clients. I view success as being the 'go to' lawyer for my clients over many years."

Krista is Co-Chair of our Employee Benefits and Executive Compensation Practice Group and Co-Partner in Charge of our Dallas office.
