Accolades | February 17, 2023

Law360

Law360 named Gibson Dunn one of its five Energy Groups of the Year for 2022. The firm was recognized for its work in which it “helped create a new energy company, shepherded an oil and gas company purchase to completion and assisted a liquefied natural gas company’s initial public offering.” The profile was published on February 16, 2023. ?Gibson Dunn’s Oil and Gas Practice Group advises the world’s leading oil and gas exploration, development and production companies, oil field services and equipment companies, pipeline and other midstream companies, and downstream entities. We also represent financial institutions, private equity firms and government entities active in the oil and gas sector. Gibson Dunn’s Power and Renewables Practice Group has decades of transactional experience in the power and renewable energy space, and a deep bench of practitioners with broad knowledge regarding all aspects of the growing industry. This includes power generation, transmission, and distribution businesses, among others.
