Kohl Anderson is a litigation associate in Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher's Houston office.

Kohl's practice consists of trials and appeals in complex commercial litigation. He has represented clients in state and federal court, on both the plaintiff and defense side, in a wide range of cases—including but not limited to breach of contract, intellectual property, product liability, and probate.

Recent and Ongoing Representative Matters:

- Successfully defended General Electric against fraud and lost profits claims arising out of Winter Storm Uri, achieving a complete summary judgment victory. Alta Power LLC v. General Electric International, No. 3:23-cv-0270 (N.D. Tex.). Case currently on appeal.
- Served on jury trial team defending Johnson & Johnson in a personal injury case. Newton v. Johnson & Johnson, No. DC-19-09317 (Dallas County Dist. Ct.). Obtained a favorable settlement during the second week of evidence.
- Argued and won an uncontested divorce trial as pro bono counsel. No. 202-40551 (Harris County Dist. Ct.).
- Representing T-Mobile before the Federal Circuit in an appeal of patent infringement litigation. T-Mobile v. KAIFI, LLC, No. 25-1006 (Fed. Cir.).
- Representing an investment banking firm as a third-party in a shareholder dispute arising out of one of the largest take-private mergers in U.S. history. No. CJ-2022-4162 (Oklahoma County Dist. Ct.).
- Representing prominent Houston-based generator distributor and its president in a probate dispute over company ownership. No. 503109-401 (Harris County Probate Ct.).

Prior to joining Gibson Dunn, Kohl served as a law clerk to the Honorable Alfred H. Bennett on the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas.

Kohl graduated with honors from the University of Texas School of Law, where he served as an Articles Editor for the Texas Law Review, the academic chair for Thurgood Marshall Legal Society, a student ambassador for the admissions office, and a Dean's Fellow. Before law school, he graduated from Texas A&M University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Industrial & Systems Engineering. At Texas A&M, Kohl was member of the NCAA and SEC Championship-winning men's track & field team and president of the Nu Alpha chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity Inc.

Kohl is a member of the Texas bar, and is admitted to practice in the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit as well as the United States District Courts for the Northern and Southern Districts of Texas.
