

Natsumi Antweiler

Associate Attorney

nantweiler@gibsondunn.com

T: +1 214.698.3119

Dallas

Natsumi Antweiler is an associate in the Dallas office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher. She is a member of the Firm's Litigation Department. Natsumi has experience in a wide variety of complex litigation matters, internal investigations, and trial practice. She has represented leading companies in high-stakes litigation across a wide array of industries, including banking, finance, oil & natural gas, media and technology.

Natsumi received her Juris Doctor summa cum laude from William & Mary Law School in 2019, where she served as Online Editor of the William & Mary Law Review. During law school, Natsumi interned for Judge Richard W. Goldberg of the US Court of International Trade. Prior to law school, Natsumi served as an international operations coordinator for a Japanese, mercury-recycling company and worked at the United Nations Environment Programme. Natsumi graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in liberal studies from Waseda University in Tokyo, Japan. She also holds a Masters in international law from the Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies in Geneva, Switzerland. She speaks Japanese and French.

Natsumi is admitted to practice before the Southern and Eastern District Courts of New York as well as New York and Texas state courts. Prior to joining Gibson Dunn, Natsumi was an associate in the Litigation Department of Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP in New York.

Capabilities

Litigation
Trials
White Collar Defense and Investigations

Credentials

Education

William & Mary Law School - 2019 Juris Doctor
Geneva Graduate Institute - 2013 Master of Arts
Waseda University - 2011 Bachelor of Arts

Admissions

New York Bar
Texas Bar