Chris Bachand-Parente is Of Counsel in the New York office of Gibson Dunn and a member of the Real Estate Practice Group. His practice focuses on complex real estate transactions, including lender and borrower side financing transactions, joint ventures, and restructurings across asset types.

Chris represents domestic and international banks, investment firms, private funds, operating companies, and non-profit organizations. His extensive financing practice has involved the origination, syndication, structuring, securitization, and work-out of mortgage and mezzanine loans, term loans, loan-on-loans, and subscription facilities.

Chris has been listed as a Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch™ in Real Estate Law, and has also been recognized as a Super Lawyers “Rising Star” for New York Metro since 2020 and a Thomson Reuters “Stand-out Lawyer” (and its predecessor, Acritas “Star Lawyer”) since 2019.

Chris received his Juris Doctor in 2014 from New York University School of Law, cum laude. He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree, with honors in economics, from Dartmouth College in 2011.

Chris is admitted to practice in the State of New York.
