

Virginia P. Baldwin

Associate Attorney

vbaldwin@gibsondunn.com

T: +1 415.393.4634

San Francisco

Virginia Baldwin is an associate in the San Francisco office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher. She currently practices in the firm's Labor and Employment Practice Group. Her practice focuses on representing and advising companies on labor and employment matters under California and federal law. Virginia also has an active pro bono practice, which focuses on immigration matters.

Virginia earned her law degree from the University of Virginia School of Law. While in law school, she served on the Managing Board and Editorial Board of the Virginia Sports and Entertainment Law Journal. Virginia also worked as a Research Assistant for Professor Joe Fore. She graduated magna cum laude and with College Honors from UCLA, earning a Bachelor of Arts degree in History.

Virginia is admitted to practice law in California.

Capabilities

Labor and Employment
Consumer Products and Retail

Credentials

Education

University of Virginia - 2020 Juris Doctor
University of California - Los Angeles -
2014 Bachelor of Arts

Admissions

California Bar