London

Rebecca Barry is an English qualified associate in the London office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher, practising in the firm's Dispute Resolution Group.

Rebecca has broad experience of commercial litigation, investigations (both regulatory and internal investigations), and international arbitration. Her practice includes large-scale, multi-jurisdictional disputes and investigations across the financial services and technology sectors. Rebecca currently represents a UK retailer in the largest private sector mass equal pay claim to be heard in the English courts.

Rebecca is recognised as a Key Lawyer for Premium Commercial Litigation in The Legal 500 UK 2026 rankings and is described as a "highly efficient team player". She maintains an active pro bono practice and is a member of the London Pro Bono Committee.

Rebecca trained at Gibson Dunn, during which time she spent several months seconded to a leading American investment bank. She holds a first-class Law degree from the University of Nottingham.
