Marija Bra?kovi? is of counsel in the London office of Gibson Dunn. She is a member of the firm's Litigation, White Collar Defense and Investigations, Fintech and Digital Assets and Privacy, Cybersecurity and Data Innovation Practice Groups.

Marija has substantial experience in both domestic and international dispute resolution, including litigation and investigations, and regulatory compliance and counselling across sectors, with a focus on fintech and emerging digital regulations. Her practice has an emphasis on high-profile and politically sensitive matters, such as cases relating to bribery, money laundering and allegations of cross-border and international crimes. Marija regularly advises on complex regulatory and compliance issues, including the scope and implementation of the emerging digital regulatory regime across the UK and EU, including the Digital Services Act, Online Safety Act and EU AI Act.

Marija has acted in matters in the UK, Bangladesh, Sri Lanka, Sierra Leone, Iraq and Cambodia, representing diverse clients including governments, political parties, non-governmental organizations and private individuals. She has particular experience in acting for major technology companies, banks, crypto firms and financial institutions.

Marija is recognised by The Legal 500 UK 2026 for Regulatory Investigations and Corporate Crime and is highlighted for being "particularly knowledgeable and add[ing] significant value." She has also been recognised by the 2025 edition of Best Lawyers in the United Kingdom as "One to Watch" for International Arbitration and Litigation.

Prior to joining Gibson Dunn, Marija was an associate in the Litigation and Dispute Resolution team of another international law firm. She previously practiced at a leading set of barristers' chambers in London and completed secondments at the Serious Fraud Office and a major retail bank. Called to the bar in 2010, Marija is an experienced advocate and has appeared in all manner of proceedings, including jury trials, court martial and tribunal hearings, as both a sole and junior advocate.
