Alice Brogi is a partner in the London office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher. Alice is a member of the Private Equity, Mergers and Acquisitions and Infrastructure practice groups.

Alice practices private equity M&A, representing sponsors in cross-border transactions across a number of sectors with a focus on infrastructure and hard assets. She has advised clients on domestic and cross-border acquisitions, disposals, preferred equity and debt investments, joint ventures, loan-to-own restructurings, and portfolio acquisitions in the United Kingdom, France, Germany, Austria and the Nordics.

Alice has extensive experience in advising private equity firms on investments across a number of sectors, including digital infrastructure, transport, utilities, climate investment and energy transition projects. She has previously completed secondments at Hudson Advisors UK and to the merchant banking division of Goldman Sachs.

Alice is recognised in the Chambers UK 2026 guide for Infrastructure. She is additionally recommended by The Legal 500 UK 2026 as a next generation partner for Infrastructure and Private equity (high-value deals, £500m+). She was also recognised by Law.com as one of the 2023 International Rising Stars, highlighting the industry's 'best and brightest' female lawyers and among Europe's 25 best up-and-coming private equity lawyers in Law.com International's Rising Stars 2022 list. Alice is also named in The Lawyer's Hot 100 2023 list, which celebrates the most daring, innovative, and creative lawyers.
