John Chesley is a Chambers-ranked litigation partner in Gibson Dunn's Washington, D.C. Office. He focuses his practice on white collar criminal enforcement and government-related litigation. He represents corporations, board committees, and executives in internal investigations and before government agencies in matters involving the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, procurement fraud, environmental crimes, securities violations, sanctions enforcement, antitrust violations, and whistleblower claims. He also has significant trial experience before federal and state courts and administrative tribunals nationwide, with a particular focus on government contract disputes.

John served as the Interim Chief Ethics & Compliance Officer of a publicly-traded, multi-national corporation, responsible for managing a global team of compliance personnel. In this role, John conducted and oversaw internal investigations, managed a whistleblower hotline, provided compliance advice, created and updated compliance policies, and administered compliance training for tens of thousands of employees worldwide. This opportunity provided John with first-hand insights into the day-to-day challenges experienced by in-house counsel, which he uses to bring practical solutions to the table for all of his clients.

John has been recognized repeatedly as one of the leading lawyers of his generation. Most recently, John was recommended by The Legal 500 2025 for his work in Government Contracts. He was also recognized in the 2025 edition of Chambers USA as a leading FCPA practitioner, in which clients described him as "smart, practical and [] a pleasure to work with," as well as "incredibly responsive and practical in his advice." Other rankings include "Global Leader in Crisis Management" (Lawdragon), "Top Rated White Collar Attorney" (Washington, D.C. Super Lawyers), "World's Leading Young Investigations Specialist" (Global Investigations Review), "Rising Star" (Law360, Government Contracts) (The National Law Journal, White Collar), Washington, D.C. "Future Litigation Star" (Benchmark Litigation), and "Future Leader" in Investigations (Who's Who Legal Investigations).
