Frédéric Chevalier is of counsel in the Paris office of Gibson Dunn where he is a member of the firm's Mergers & Acquisitions, Private Equity, Securities Regulation, and Corporate Governance Practice Groups.

Frédéric focuses his practice on corporate transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, private equity transactions, as well as corporate governance matters. He has strong experience in securities law, especially regarding public tender offers, governance issues, as well as strategic or complex transactions involving listed companies.

He has advised clients from a variety of sectors, with a particular focus on the TMT sector. Over the years, he has worked on a wide range of transactions such as acquisitions, disposals, investments, group reorganizations, LBOs, joint-ventures or assets transactions, including in cross-border contexts.

Prior to joining Gibson Dunn in 2022, Frédéric practiced in a leading French law firm's Mergers & Acquisitions department.

Admitted to the Paris Bar since 2015, he graduated with honors in 2014 with a Master in Management & Business Law from HEC Paris, and an advanced master's degree (Master 2) in Business Law and Taxation from Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne University.

He speaks French and English fluently.
