London

Roshana Ching is an associate in Gibson Dunn's London office and a member of the firm's Litigation and International Arbitration practice groups.

Roshana has broad experience acting on complex disputes, including mass claims before the High Court and the Competition Appeal Tribunal, high-profile arbitration, and regulatory investigations. She has coordinated multi-jurisdictional litigation strategies with local counsel across the world. Roshana has a strong academic background in economics, which allows her to work seamlessly with economic experts.

Prior to joining Gibson Dunn, Roshana was an associate at a Magic Circle firm. She began her career in New Zealand, where she acted for government clients on complex civil and regulatory litigation and as a Crown Prosecutor of serious crime.

Representative Experience*:

- Acted for Volkswagen AG, Audi AG and subsidiaries on mass claims before the High Court arising from the "Dieselgate" scandal, including antitrust claims based on the European Commission's novel decision in Case AT.40178 – Emissions (the first cartel infringement finding based solely on a restriction of technological development).
- Acted for Manchester City Football Club on confidential antitrust and public law matters subject to arbitration.
- Advised BT Group in relation to an investigation by the Competition and Markets Authority into alleged anti-competitive conduct by BT Group, BBC, Sky UK Limited and others regarding the procurement of freelance and employed labour for sports content production and broadcasting.
- Acted for Volvo/Renault Trucks in coordinating its Europe-wide defence of over 3,000 proceedings in 21 countries following the European Commission's decision in Case AT.39824 – Trucks.
- Acted pro bono for the Anti-Trafficking and Labour Exploitation Unit in an intervention before the Court of Appeal regarding the scope of the UK's criminal injuries compensation scheme: RN v First-tier Tribunal [2023] EWCA Civ 882.
