Albert Cho is a partner in the Hong Kong office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP and is head of the firm's Investment Funds Practice Group in Asia. Albert focuses his practice on the formation of private investment funds, including buyout, growth capital, venture capital, special situations, debt/credit, continuation, secondary, real estate and hedge funds, as well as funds-of-funds. He has extensive experience advising fund clients on co-investment transactions, GP-led secondaries transactions, operational and structuring matters, and legal and regulatory compliance matters. He has represented private investment funds formed by a variety of sponsors, including established private equity houses, large financial services companies, spin-off/spin-out teams as well as boutique firms.

Albert regularly works with Asian, U.S. and European private fund sponsors on their fundraising activities, particularly the formation of funds focused on investing in the Asia-Pacific region. He has also represented institutional investors in their private investment fund activities, including sovereign wealth funds, employee benefit plans for major corporations, family offices, and the alternative investment arms of financial services companies.

Albert is consistently ranked as a leading lawyer and a notable practitioner for Investment Funds in China by Chambers Asia Pacific and Chambers Greater China Region, in which a client noted that "Albert's technical expertise, commercial awareness and sound judgement have helped his clients in some very difficult situations where perhaps no one else could have got the same result." In the Chambers Greater China Region guide, interviewed clients remarked that Albert "stands out as the leading lawyer advising Korean private equity clients on offshore fund formations," "is technically excellent and hands-on," has "decades of experience over multiple economic cycles and knows exactly what is important when situations arise," "delivers a complete product for clients," "consistently provides outstanding work and advice, even under very challenging or urgent circumstances," "is absolutely devoted to his clients and to supporting their business," and "gets very close to his clients, taking the trouble to know their business." He has also been recognized for his work as a private funds lawyer in The Legal 500 Asia Pacific, IFLR1000, Legal Media Group's Expert Guides and Who's Who Legal. In The Legal 500 Asia Pacific guide, clients were quoted saying Albert is a "first-class lawyer" who is "at the top of his game" and is "extremely dedicated" and "hardworking and knowledgeable". He is particularly known for his work in the Korean market and has been recognized by Chambers Global as a foreign expert for Korea in Investment Funds.

His recent experience includes advising:

- Hahn & Company, a leading South Korea-based private equity firm, on the formation of Hahn & Company IV, its fourth Korea-focused buyout fund, which raised approximately US$3.4 billion in capital commitments and is reported to be the largest single-country investment fund ever formed in Asia, excluding China.

- Hahn & Company, a leading South Korea-based private equity firm, in the sale of its interest in Ssangyong C&E, an industry-leading Korean cement manufacturer, through the largest single-asset GP-led secondary transaction in Asia to date.
- PAG, a leading Asia Pacific-focused alternative investment firm, on the formation of PAG Loan Fund V, its fifth pan-Asia direct lending fund and the largest direct lending fund raised in the Asia-Pacific region to date.
- Glenwood Private Equity, a leading independent investment firm headquartered in Seoul, on the formation of Glenwood Private Equity Fund III, which closed with total commitments of $1.1 billion.
- UCK Partners, a Seoul-headquartered private equity firm, on the formation of its third Korea-focused fund, UCK Partners III, at KRW1.1 trillion in commitments.
- Crescendo Equity Partners, a South Korean private equity firm, on the formation of Crescendo Private Equity Fund III (USD), L.P., which focuses on making control buyout and growth capital investments in mid-cap technology companies in or with a nexus to South Korea.
- J.P. Morgan Asset Management, the asset management division of JP Morgan Chase & Co., on the formation of Japan Multi-Family Fund IV, a fund investing in multi-family residential real estate in major cities in Japan.
