Candice Choh

Partner

cchoh@gibsondunn.com
T: +1 310.552.8658
Century City

Candice Choh is Co-Partner in Charge of the Century City and Los Angeles offices of Gibson Dunn where she practices in the firm's Transactional Department. Candice is also Co-Chair of the firm's GP Solutions Practice Group. She has a broad-based practice encompassing public and private company mergers and acquisitions across a wide variety of industries and other private equity transactions, including investment fund formation, co-investments, secondary transactions, and investments in sponsors. Candice regularly counsels private equity sponsors and family offices on a variety of transactions as well as firm structuring and internal governance matters.

In addition, Candice provides corporate and transactional advice to a variety of non-profit organizations including the Barbara Bush Foundation for Literacy, the Center Theatre Group, and the Boys & Girls Club of Metro Los Angeles, among many others.

Candice is a member of Gibson Dunn's Hiring Committee. She also previously served as a commissioner on the Los Angeles Convention Center Authority.

Candice graduated from the University of Pennsylvania in 1997, receiving a B.A. in International Relations. She earned her law degree from the University of Southern California Law School in 2002, was a senior editor on the Southern California Law Review, and was elected to the Order of the Coif.

Candice is admitted to practice in the State of California.

Capabilities

Mergers and Acquisitions
Capital Markets
Consumer Products and Retail
Family Office
Finance
Investment Funds
Private Equity
Securities Regulation and Corporate Governance

Credentials

Education

University of Southern California - 2002 Juris Doctor
University of Pennsylvania - 1997 Bachelor of Arts

Admissions

California Bar

2026 Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP. All rights reserved.
For other information, please visit us at www.gibsondunn.com

GIBSON DUNN