Chris Chorba is co-chair of the firm's Class Actions Practice Group. He specializes in defending class actions and complex litigation. He has substantial experience across a broad range of complex commercial matters at the trial and appellate level in California and throughout the country, and in multi-district litigation (MDLs). His litigation and counseling experience includes work for companies in every industry—including automotive, beauty / cosmetic, consumer products, education, entertainment, financial services, food and beverage, health care, insurance, life sciences, retail, social media, sports and gaming, technology, telecommunications, and utility / energy.

Chris has been recognized in Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business and in The Best Lawyers in America for Commercial Litigation. Benchmark Litigation acknowledges Chris as a "Litigation Star," and Law360 also named Chris a "Class Action MVP," which profiles attorneys who have "distinguished themselves from their peers by securing hard-earned successes in high-stakes litigation, complex global matters and record-breaking deals." The National Law Journal also identifies him as a "Trailblazer" for his work defending consumer class actions, and Lawdragon recognizes him as one of "500 Leading Litigators in America" and the "500 Leading Global Litigators."

After graduating cum laude from the Georgetown University School of Foreign Service, Chris received his J.D. from the University of Virginia School of Law, where he served on the Editorial Board of the Virginia Law Review. He is admitted to practice before all state and federal courts in California, the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals, and the Supreme Court of the United States. --

Class and Representative Actions

Chris is a nationally recognized expert in defending class actions, including claims involving California's Unfair Competition and False Advertising Laws (Business & Professions Code § 17200 and § 17500), the Consumers Legal Remedies Act (California Civil Code § 1750 et seq.), the Lanham Act, and the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005. His representative class and representative actions include the following:

- Secured an order denying Rule 23(b)(2) and (b)(3) certification in a putative class action challenging the accuracy of Facebook's ad targeting.
- Defended major technology manufacturer in nationwide multi-district litigation (MDL 2827) involving flagship smartphone devices. Secured early ruling dismissing all statutory and common law fraud claims with prejudice, as well as all claims based on a broad theory that the devices were "defective." Negotiated nationwide class settlement, and assisted with companion state JCCP action and other proceedings across the country.
- Secured dismissal of entertainment company and content creator in putative class action alleging that placement of videos on YouTube constitutes a violation of federal Children's Online Privacy Protection Act ("COPPA") and California state privacy laws.

- Served as lead counsel for retailer in multi-district litigation (MDL 3032) involving alleged pest infestation at distribution center. Negotiated favorable settlement resolving all claims.
- Secured dismissal with prejudice of UCL and express warranty claims in putative class actions alleging "defect" in 8-speed automatic transmissions in several Toyota vehicles.
- Representing online sports-betting company in class actions challenging product marketing and alleged data incident.
- Serving as national counsel for home warranty company in defending putative class actions and "mass" arbitrations involving home warranty contracts. Tried several dozen arbitrations to successful resolutions.
- After defeating class certification, secured case-terminating sanctions in long-running action against pharmacy benefits managers (PBMs) for spoliation of evidence. Secured appellate ruling affirming judgment on separate ground (collateral estoppel).
- Defeated class certification in a series of significant overpayment recovery class actions against a major health insurer and plan administrator. Plaintiffs sought certification under every prong of Rule 23—(b)(1), (b)(2), (b)(3), and (c)(4)—and the court rejected certification on all grounds, even though other courts had granted certification in similar cases.
- Obtained order decertifying Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA) class action against major technology company. Following decertification, obtained summary judgment determining that company's system did not qualify as an automatic telephone dialing system (ATDS) as required to support TCPA claim.
- Defended University of Southern California against high-profile ERISA retirement fees class action. Secured dismissal of all individual defendants and all claims for breach of duty of loyalty and "prohibited transactions," and persuaded court to strike demand for jury trial. Negotiated classwide settlement.

Appeals

Chris has argued several appeals before the federal and state courts of appeal, including the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit:

- Secured dismissal with prejudice of novel "car hacking" claims against Toyota based on the lack of Article III standing, and defended that judgment on appeal.
- Represented leading technology company in data privacy class action alleging violations of Wiretap Act, California Invasion of Privacy Act, and other statutes. Secured denial of certification of all claims for statutory damages, and prevailed on appeal in defending classwide settlement for only injunctive relief.
- Obtained dismissals with prejudice of all five product liability actions against major technology company involving alleged liability for "distracted driving" accidents, and successfully defended all of these wins on appeal.
- Secured the reversals on appeal of judgments totaling $295 million in three certified class actions in New Mexico and California involving installment payment plans for auto insurance policies.

Trials

- Assisted in the defense of a complex fraud and civil conspiracy action brought by the California Insurance Commissioner, which resulted a favorable defense verdict on five of six liability claims and all claims for monetary damages following a lengthy federal jury trial spanning several months, and a post-verdict order rejecting any punitive damages. Secured favorable jury verdict in limited retrial, resulting in no award of compensatory damages despite the Commissioner's demand for $4 billion. The Daily Journal recognized this victory as one of its Top Defense Verdicts of the year.

- Retained by product manufacturer to handle federal Lanham Act trial following an adverse, eight-figure jury verdict after initial trial. Secured exclusion of all damages evidence on the eve of the retrial, which resulted in a complete win for our client on all of plaintiff's claims. Successfully defended the favorable judgment on appeal.
