Evan M. D'Amico is a partner in the Washington, D.C. office of Gibson Dunn, where his practice focuses primarily on mergers and acquisitions.

Evan advises companies, private equity firms, boards of directors, and special committees in connection with a wide variety of complex corporate matters, including mergers and acquisitions, asset sales, leveraged buyouts, spin-offs, and joint ventures. He also has experience advising issuers, borrowers, underwriters, and lenders in connection with financing transactions and public and private offerings of debt and equity securities. Evan has particular expertise in advising special purpose acquisition companies (SPACs), operating companies and investors in connection with SPAC business combinations and financing transactions.

Evan has been named a Rising Star in mergers and acquisitions by Super Lawyers 2016-2019 and in Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch in America™ for M&A. In 2019, The Deal profiled him as a Rising Star, which recognizes new M&A partners who are “deemed by The Deal to be one of the most promising of 2020.” Evan was named by Lawdragon as one of the 500 Leading Dealmakers in America for 2022, 2024, and 2025.

Prior to joining Gibson Dunn, Evan was an associate at a premiere law firm in New York. Evan earned his Juris Doctor, cum laude, from Harvard Law School. At Harvard, Evan served as an Executive Technical Editor of the Harvard Civil Rights-Civil Liberties Law Review. Evan graduated from Duke University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in history. Evan is admitted to practice in the State of New York and the District of Columbia.
