London

Lucrezia is an associate in the London office of Gibson Dunn and is a member of the Finance and Projects and Infrastructure Practice Groups.

Lucrezia brings experience in advising both borrowers and lenders on the construction, development and financing aspects of a wide range of cross?border projects, spanning ECA?backed and vendor?financing facilities, multi?billion?euro BOT infrastructure projects, as well as renewable energy-related transactions. Her expertise includes guiding clients on English law matters and collaborating closely with local counsel across multiple jurisdictions. She also has experience in working on major cross-border mergers and acquisitions, complex reorganisations, ESG-related corporate advice, and structured and asset-backed finance transactions.

Prior to joining Gibson Dunn, Lucrezia trained at a magic circle law firm in London and worked as a Project and Infrastructure Finance Associate at another leading international firm.

She completed her studies in London, and was admitted as a solicitor in England & Wales in 2025. Lucrezia is of Italian origins and speaks fluent English, Italian and Spanish.
