Bertrand Delaunay is a partner in the Paris office of Gibson Dunn and a member of the firm's Mergers and Acquisitions, Private Equity, Energy, Securities Law, and Business Restructuring & Reorganization Practice Groups.

Bertrand specializes in mergers and acquisitions, including joint-ventures and private equity. He is also a specialist of the corporate aspects of restructuring, infrastructure, energy, and real estate transactions.

He acts on behalf of industrial companies, investment funds, and banks.

The Legal 500 EMEA recommends Bertrand as a Key Lawyer in both its Mergers and Acquisitions and Insolvency categories. Previous editions noted his ability to handle the corporate aspects of Insolvency operations, with sources highlighting he is a "key practitioner", a "corporate expert" in connection with restructuring matters, "available and knowledgeable" ; "very technical and a great professional" ; a "key point of contact".

Best Lawyers in France also consistently recommends him for Corporate Law, Insolvency and Reorganization Law, Mergers and Acquisitions Law, as well as Private Equity Law.

Prior to joining Gibson Dunn in 2017, Bertrand practiced with a leading British law firm since 1998, where he served as managing partner of the Paris office from 2010 to 2012.

A member of the Paris Bar, Bertrand graduated in 1993 from University of Paris I (Panthéon-Sorbonne) with a DEA (postgraduate degree) in corporate law, in 1992 from Queen Mary and Westfield College - University of London with a LL.M., and in 1991 from University of Paris II (Panthéon-Assas) with a Maîtrise in corporate law.

He speaks French and English fluently.
