Michael S. Diamant is a partner in the Washington, D.C. office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher. He is a member of the White Collar Defense and Investigations Practice Group, and serves on the firm's Finance Committee. His practice focuses on white collar criminal defense, internal investigations, and corporate compliance.

Michael has been recognized as one of the leading U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act ("FCPA") experts in the United States by Chambers USA nationwide (2016–2025) and Chambers Global (2017–2025). He has also been recognized in The Best Lawyers in America® for work in Criminal Defense: White-Collar (2021–2026). Who's Who Legal named Michael to its "Investigations Guide" (2019, 2022–2024), Thought Leaders: USA list (2023–2024), Thought Leaders: Global Investigations Review (2022–2024) and to its "Future Leaders: Investigations" list (2018, 2020). He was selected to Benchmark Litigation's "40 & Under Hot List" (2016–2018, 2020) and listed as a "Future Litigation Star" (2016, 2019, 2025, 2026) and "Rising Star" (2016). Michael was also named to Global Investigation Review's "40 Under 40" list (2014, 2017), and named to Law360's "Rising Stars" for White Collar (2017).

Michael has broad white collar defense experience representing corporations and corporate executives facing criminal and regulatory charges. He has represented clients in an array of matters, including accounting and securities fraud, antitrust violations, and environmental crimes, before law enforcement and regulators, including the U.S. Department of Justice and the Securities and Exchange Commission. Michael also has led numerous internal investigations for publicly traded corporations and conducted fieldwork in nineteen different countries on five continents. In addition to his U.S. government-facing work, Michael has extensive World Bank Group enforcement experience, working on behalf of clients under investigation by the World Bank's Integrity Vice Presidency (INT) and assisting companies already subject to World Bank sanction, as well as representing clients before other multilateral development bank enforcement authorities. He has negotiated numerous settlement agreements with INT, obtained declinations, and successfully litigated to complete victory in the World Bank's sanctions process.

A recognized expert on corporate compliance, Michael routinely advises clients on the adequacy of the design and implementation of their corporate ethics and compliance programs, often conducting risk assessments and program evaluations. He served as a DOJ-appointed independent compliance monitor, overseeing the implementation of competition-related controls and core compliance program elements at a corporation subject to a non-prosecution agreement with DOJ's Antitrust Division. Michael's compliance-related representations have included extensive work on all programmatic elements, including whistleblowing and investigative procedures, codes of conduct, expense approval and reimbursement processes, and oversight and governance functions, among many others. Michael has designed entire ethics and compliance programs for Fortune 100 corporations, and he frequently assists companies in preparing for compliance presentations to DOJ in advance of the government's corporate charging
