

Matt DiSandro

Associate Attorney

mdisandro@gibsondunn.com

T: +1 213.229.7907

Los Angeles

Matt DiSandro is an associate in the Los Angeles office of Gibson Dunn. He currently practices in the firm's Litigation Department.

He received his J.D. from the University of Virginia School of Law in 2024. While in law school, he was an editor for the Virginia Tax Review, where he published a student note entitled "The Future of Section 514: Policy Failures and the Path Forward for the Debt-Financed Income Rules." Matt was the founder and president of the Korean Law Student Association, the president of the West Coast Wahoos, and a competitor and coach for the law school's Moot Court and Mock Trial teams. Matt also served as a judicial extern to the Honorable Dorothy C. Kim of the California Court of Appeal.

Matt graduated magna cum laude from the University of California, Santa Barbara in 2021 with a B.A. in Political Science and Sociology. He received the Academic Excellence Award for academic performance, leadership, and community service.

Matt is admitted to practice law in the State of California.

Capabilities

Litigation
Crisis Management
FDA and Health Care
Insurance and Reinsurance
Tax Controversy and Litigation
White Collar Defense and Investigations

Credentials

Education

University of Virginia - 2024 Juris Doctor
University of California - Santa Barbara -
2021 Bachelor of Arts

Admissions

California Bar