S?teven A. Domanowski is a partner in the New York office of Gibson Dunn, Chair of the firm's Liability Management and Special Situations Practice Group and a member of the Business Restructuring and Reorganization Practice Group. His practice sits at the intersection of restructuring and corporate finance. He represents a diverse array of parties in liability management transactions, special situation strategies, distressed debt transactions, distressed debt exchanges, in-court and out-of-court restructurings and other distressed matters.

Steve focuses on representing ad hoc lender groups, strategic investors, private equity funds, asset management firms, hedge funds and other similar investment vehicles in creating and executing tailored solutions for the most complex liability management transactions. Steve has extensive experience advising distressed debt and special situations clients in structuring and implementing innovative and complex liability management and alternative capital solutions, including priming transactions and other uptiering structures, non-loan party/non-guarantor and unrestricted subsidiary drop-downs, “double dip” and “triple dip” structures, distressed exchange transactions, amend-and-extend transactions, recapitalizations, DIP financings, direct lending transactions, exit financings and out-of-court restructurings.

As Chair of the firm's market driving Liability Management and Special Situations practice and a member of our industry leading ad hoc creditor focused Business Restructuring and Reorganization practice, Steve delivers novel, creative and strategic liability management solutions to the most complex and unconventional event-driven and opportunistic situations, including both proactive and defensive liability management solutions and special situations strategies in the restructuring of:
