Mitchell T. Dost is a corporate associate in the Dallas office of Gibson Dunn and a member of the firm's Investment Funds Practice Group.

Mitchell has experience representing sponsors in the formation, marketing and operation of open- and closed-end private investment funds across a range of investment strategies, including debt and equity real estate funds and buyout funds. Mitchell also advises on a variety of matters related to private funds, including co-investments, internal sponsor arrangements, secondary transactions, separate accounts and joint ventures.

Mitchell received his Juris Doctor from Queen's University. He earned his Bachelor of Arts in applied economics from Queen's University and holds an MBA from the Smith School of Business.

Prior to joining Gibson Dunn, Mitchell was an associate of an international law firm. As a member of their Corporate Group in Toronto, he advised clients on a range of domestic and cross-border matters, including M&A, equity capital markets, and other structured transactions. He also completed secondments at CIBC and Northleaf Capital Partners.

Mitchell is admitted to practice law in the State of New York and the State of Texas.
