Sebastian L. Fain is a partner in the New York office of Gibson Dunn and co-head of the Firm's Cross Border M&A practice. His practice focuses on M&A, activism defense, and corporate governance. His experience is centered on domestic and cross-border M&A, including public company mergers, private equity acquisitions, joint ventures, complex business carve-outs and divestitures, hostile takeovers and defense, carve-out IPOs, spin-offs, and split-offs. Sebastian also counsels boards of directors and C-suites on the most important issues facing companies, such as activism defense, governance and disclosure issues and special committee representations. He also has extensive experience representing clients in complex commercial agreements and in capital markets transactions, such as IPOs, secondary offerings, block trades, high-yield bond offerings, and exchange offers.

Sebastian has been named as a Dealmaker of the Year and finalist for Corporate Lawyer of the Year by The American Lawyer and one of the Top 250 Lawyers in America by Forbes. In addition, he has been recognized as a Leading Lawyer for Corporate/M&A by, among others, Bloomberg 40 Under 40, Lawdragon, The Legal 500, IFLR1000, and as a Rising Star by the MCAA.

Sebastian also had essays, op-eds and articles published in The Financial Times, Reuters, Law360, The Recorder, The Deal, ABA Business Law, Harvard Law School Forum on Corporate Governance, Deal Lawyers, The M&A Journal, and Insights.

Sebastian is admitted to practice in the State of New York.
