Diana M. Feinstein is a partner in the Los Angeles office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher. She is a member of the firm's Litigation, Class Actions, and White Collar Defense and Investigations Practice Groups.

Diana's practice focuses on complex litigation, including consumer class actions, securities litigation and high-value commercial litigation. She also focuses on white collar defense and investigations, including matters initiated by the Department of Justice, Securities and Exchange Commission, Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, and Federal Trade Commission. Diana has been selected by her peers for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America in the field of Criminal Defense: White Collar.

She has handled matters across a variety of industries, including technology, financial services, entertainment, insurance, healthcare, transportation, real estate, manufacturing, and consumer products. In light of her dual practice, Diana has extensive expertise in parallel proceedings, encompassing criminal, civil, and regulatory components, with an emphasis on cases in the crises arena. She also has extensive expertise in electronic discovery and forensics, which typically accompany these multifaceted, complex disputes.

Diana is a frequent speaker on topics such as attorney-client privilege, parallel proceedings, and electronic discovery.

Representative Civil Litigation:

- Representing top social networking company in lawsuit alleging violations of Illinois's Biometric Information Privacy Act.
- Successfully represented Archer Aviation, a leader in electric vertical takeoff and landing (eVTOL) aircraft, in its defense of trade secret claims, as well as its prosecution of counterclaims for defamation, securing key victories, including defeating a motion for preliminary injunction, substantially narrowing plaintiff's claims on summary judgment, and defeating plaintiff's motion for summary judgment.
- Defended a major university in mass action litigation relating to alleged misconduct by a university employee, including cross-coordination across related civil litigations and regulatory investigations.
- Coordinated extensive discovery and handled damages experts in connection with defense of a mass toxic tort litigation brought by over 400 former workers against an international engineering firm.
- Obtained decertification of a class of more than 11,000 J.B. Hunt truck drivers on the eve of trial in a long-running wage and hour litigation.
- Defended major technology manufacturer in nationwide multi-district litigation (MDL 2827), securing early ruling dismissing all statutory and common law fraud
